

Dry leaves/flowers art

Find some flowers that look like they can be dried.

Cut off the extra leaves from the stem.

Bundle them together and hang them upside down in a cool, dark place. They should be dry in 1-2 weeks.

Let your child make a bouquet from the dried flowers.

Go outside and find flat petal flowers.

Put them between some pages in a thick, heavy book.

Press them for about 5-7 days.

You can glue the pressed flowers into a scrapbook or use them in other artwork.

What your Child will learn by Pressing Flowers and Leaves:

- The various parts of leaves
- The various parts of flowers
- How to dry flowers and leaves to preserve them for always

